

The 16th ISHEID congress is an ideal opportunity to network and to increase and update your knowledge! Come to Marseille from 24 to 26 March 2009 to listen to the renowned International Leaders in the fields of HIV and Hepatitis Viruses give you State-of-the-Art Lectures.

The 16th ISHEID congress is the major International Conference specifically designed by scientists to give specialists an opportunity to:

- receive high quality scientific information,
- meet in a friendly atmosphere
- and give you practical information for everyday use.

The ISHEID congress is Science, not marketing: The programme is established by an independent scientific committee.

10 reasons why you must attend ISHEID congress:

- It offers an innovative programme featuring state of the art sessions on HIV & infectious diseases
- This programme regularly welcomes the world's leading experts in infectious diseases
- It also offers a unique mix of talks by international celebrities & presentations of unpublished data by young researchers
- You will learn about the latest developments of HIV & Infectious Diseases medical trends
- You will gain new insights from eminent speakers and workshops
- Its human scale facilitates direct contact with top personalities
- It is a place where to meet and talk to serious exhibitors and get the right answers
- You will find a wide-ranging exhibition of the latest products and services
- It is an ideal environment to meet and share experiences with other International professionals
- ISHEID congress is in a word : uplifting